【SYNOPSIS】

Taishi Shoji and Yui Kurosawa, politician and actress who have been married for five years, are facing a crisis. In public, they act as the perfect husband-and-wife duo, but at home, they rarely speak or make eye contact, only doing so for livestreams on social media. Both are optimistic for a divorce, but family and other circumstances stand in their way. Nevertheless, the two unite to work towards their common goal.

	10
Doteuchi Coast (Kashima Island)
Doteuchi, Hojo, Matsuyama
Located near JR Iyo-Hojo Station. Kashima Island, which was shown in the background, can be reached in 3 min by boat and has campsites and barbecue areas, as well as beaches where you can enjoy swimming in the summer.	This is where Taishi Shoji and others held beach cleanups during the election campaign. It is also where Taishi and Yui walked after they filed divorce papers.
	11
Oyamazumi Shrine
3327 Omishimacho Miyaura, Imabari
Sanctioned by the Imperial Court as a guardian shrine to Japan and home to a 2,600-year-old sacred tree. Its treasure hall is said to contain about 80% of Japan's national treasure weapons designated as Important Cultural Properties.	This is where Taishi Shoji, Yui Kurosawa, Mineko Shoji, and Goro Saotome threw beans for Setsubun, as well as where Go Soda held election campaigns, and Yui filmed the TV drama Miko-chan.

Filming Locations: Where the Stage Was Set

	1	Ehime Prefectural Government		4	Botchan Plaza (in front of Matsuyama City Station)
4-4-2 Ichibancho, Matsuyama			5 Minatomachi, Matsuyama
The main building of the Ehime Prefectural Government was used to resemble the National Diet Building. This photo was taken where Taishi Shoji was challenged by Go Soda.			Located in the center of Matsuyama City by the shopping districts and office buildings. Nearby is the Iyotetsu Takashimaya department store.		This is where Taishi Shoji and Go Soda gave campaign speeches.
Designed by Shichiro Kigo and completed in 1929. A symmetrical building with the image of a bird spreading its wings when viewed from above.
	2	Matsuyama Castle		5	Hanazonomachi Street
1 Marunouchi, Matsuyama			3/4/5/6/7 Hanazonomachi, Matsuyama
Symbol of Matsuyama standing at a peak of 132m. Contains 21 Important Cultural Properties, including one of only 12 surviving castle towers in Japan.		This is where Yui Kurosawa and Kyoji Kano met in secret.	Shopping street with many restaurants, stores, and resting areas with lawns and benches. Every 3rd and 4th Sunday, various local vendors gather to hold an event.		This is where Taishi Shoji and Go Soda's wife (Yui) talked during the election.
	3	Gintengai Shopping Arcade		6	Dogo Onsen Area
3/4 Minatomachi, Matsuyama			Dogoyonomachi, Matsuyama
Part of the L-shaped shopping arcade that extends from Okaido Station to Matsuyama City Station. As one of the largest shopping districts in Shikoku, it is lined with shops and restaurants, and beloved by locals. In summer, Saturday Night Markets are held.		The shopping arcade where they danced to "Ehime Ondo" and campaign speeches were held.	One of the oldest hot springs in Japan, with a history of about 3,000 years. The original building was designated as an Important Cultural Property. There are also two annexes, Asuka no Yu and Tsubaki no Yu. Photo is of Asuka no Yu, where the scene was shot.		This is where Taishi Shoji gave campaign speeches.

	7	Rengaya		12	Akagane Museum
9-44 Toiyacho, Matsuyama			2-8-1 Sakaicho, Niihama
Western restaurant founded in 1975 with a warm atmosphere and homemade dishes.		This is the restaurant where Taishi Shoji and Yui Kurosawa ate hamburger steak and custard pudding together.	Cultural facility with an art museum and multipurpose hall. Exterior is covered with about 22,500 copper plates. The building is symbolic to Niihama, the "Akagane Town" that flourished at the Besshi Copper Mine.		This is where Yui Kurosawa did a ribbon cutting.
	8	Matsuyama Airport		13	Ikawa Residence
2731 Minamiyoshidamachi, Matsuyama			1-1 Mishima Miyagawa, Shikokuchuo
Ehime's gateway to the sky, opened in 1956. Busy during weekends and holidays due to its close proximity to central Matsuyama.		This is Taishi Shoji and Sakurako Mimata spoke, as well as where Taishi and Yui Kurosawa go to fly to Tokyo.	Owned by a company with headquarters in Shikokuchuo City.		This place was used as the entrance to the Shoji residence.
	9	Nadabe Pharmacy		14	Yasuoka Kamaboko Factory
1-15 Nadamachi, Iyo			293 Mimacho Nakanonaka, Uwajima
Located in the Gunchu Machinaka shopping arcade where you can find just about anything. 3 min walk from Gunchu Station.		This pharmacy is located in the shopping district where Taishi's mother, Mineko Shoji, helped campaign.	Established in 1952 as a fish shop. Two local delicacies, jakoten fried fish cake and kamaboko fish cake, are made by hand here.		The factory where Yui Kurosawa made jakoten fried fish cake as part of the election campaign.
